

permanent injury, would you agree to that?

SENATOR LINDSAY: Sure. Brad, I'm willing to talk about this. We have the question divided. I think we ought to handle this half of the amendment first...

SENATOR ASHFORD: I know, but I mean this is pretty...

SENATOR LINDSAY: ...and then go back...

SENATOR ASHFORD: ...this is pretty important stuff.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Sure, but that's on the second half. It's on the question that we're not dealing with right now.

SENATOR ASHFORD: I know it's on the second half, but it goes to the essence of the whole darn thing. I mean if we can't...

SPEAKER BARRETT: (Gavel.) Time has expired.

SENATOR ASHFORD: Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: I would remind the body that we are discussing the Chambers amendment to Section 1 of the amendment. Senator Dierks, would you care to discuss it? Senator Scofield, would you care to discuss it? Senator Abboud on deck, followed by Senator Labedz.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: Mr. President, I move we adjourn until tomorrow morning at eight o'clock.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Mr. Clerk, have you something for the record?

CLERK: Mr. President, I have amendments to be printed to LB 137. (See page 2109 of the Legislative Journal.) That is all that I have.

SPEAKER BARRETT: A machine vote has been requested on the motion to adjourn, and the question is, shall we adjourn until tomorrow morning at eight o'clock? Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Please record.

CLERK: 18 ayes, 14 nays to adjourn, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Motion prevails, we are adjourned until
